WHAT THIS IS

One clean page per flagship product and enterprise suite — written the way a client reads, not the way we operate — ready to send, print, or hand across a table.

A Yemeni operating institution ♦ Aden
Kayan Innovation, Entrepreneurship & Work Environments LLC

OWNER: MARKETING & SALES LEAD ♦ SHAREABLE — CLIENT-FACING

Effective 30 June 2026

HOW IT OPERATES

WHAT THIS IS	A set of one-page sell-sheets — one per flagship Ready Product and per enterprise suite — each stating the promise, who it's for, what the client gets, the outcome, the turnaround, the price, and how to start. Written in human language, on brand.
WHO IT IS FOR	The Marketing & Sales Lead and anyone pitching Kayan; each sheet is a standalone leave-behind for a prospect.
APPROVAL & ENDORSEMENT	Owned by Marketing & Sales; prices and scope drawn from the Ready Products Catalogue; the CEO approves any pricing change.
WHEN IT IS USED	In every sales conversation — sent on WhatsApp, attached to an email, printed for a meeting, or linked from the site.
WORKFLOW	Prospect shows interest → send the relevant sheet → they see promise + outcome + price → conversation moves to a scoped agreement.
COST / FEE	Internal. Prices shown are client-facing starting prices from the catalogue (USD; settled at the actual Aden rate on the day).
OWNER & REVIEW	Marketing & Sales Lead; refreshed whenever the catalogue or pricing changes.

00 HOW TO USE

One Page, One Decision

A sell-sheet has one job: to make a busy person think ‘yes, this is exactly what I need’ in under a minute — then know how to start.

Each sheet that follows is a single, self-contained page for one product or suite. It leads with the promise in the client's words, shows what they get and the outcome they can expect, states the turnaround and starting price plainly, and ends with one easy way to begin — a WhatsApp message. The language is deliberately human: a client buys peace of mind and a result, not ‘managed delivery units’ or ‘escrow gates’. Prices are the catalogue's client-facing starting prices in US dollars, settled at the actual Aden exchange rate on the day. Send the one that fits; never send all of them at once.

The Same Promise, Every Time

Whatever the product, the promise behind it does not change: verified talent, a clear agreement, work delivered to standard, and payment protected until the client is satisfied. That is what every sheet is really selling — not a deliverable, but the certainty that it will be done right. Lead with the client's outcome, keep it to one page, and always end with the easiest possible next step: a message on WhatsApp.
